

Final Task

Thinking about how well you have worked in your group so far, which of these was you?

Edward de Bono's Thinking Hats

Pink – I think about things, I get hunches, I don't give reasons

Yellow – I dream, I make things happen, I see the good side

White – I think like a computer, only the facts, no emotions

Green – I am creative, I look for new answers

Black – I see the bad side, I don't think it will work, I moan

Blue – I am in charge, I must get the team working

Now draw a large de Bono hat in the colour that you feel and out of the top of it show how you could change your actions to become the hat you would rather be e.g.

If I was a Pink Hat, I would try to think through my hunches and ask for facts first so that I could be more like a White Hat next time.
