

Communicating and Evaluating the slavery project

Your task is to assess the projects that have been completed about slavery

- 1) Each group is going to take turns to present their projects to the group - this means that you cannot talk at the same time
- 2) Those who are listening need to grade the projects using the following criteria
  - ?? Originality of ideas (5 marks)
  - ?? Quality of writing (5 marks)
  - ?? Effort (5 marks)
- 3) At the end of the lesson we will judge who has produced the best description in the class and they will be awarded a prize.

Evaluation questions for you to answer:

- 1) How effectively did you generate ideas for the project?
- 2) How well did you decide what were the best ideas to use in the project?
- 3) What have you learned about Slavery?
- 4) What skills do you think you have developed during this project?
- 5) What have you enjoyed the most about this project?

