

William of Normandy is angry that Harold has been crowned and plans an invasion. However the wind is against him and he has to wait.

The winds in the Channel have changed and William is able to land his army on the South coast. He starts burning down the local villages.

Haradrada lands in Yorkshire and defeats the English Earls, Morcar and Edwin at Fulford. Godwinson marches north to defeat Haradrada at the battle of Stamford Bridge.

This is a timeline of the events leading up to the battle of Hastings.

King Edward the Confessor of England is near death. He has no children. Three men wish to be King - Harold Godwinson, Harald Haradrada and William, Duke of Normandy.

Godwinson has to march 250 miles to Hastings to fight William. The battle takes place on October 14 1066 and lasts for most of the day. Godwinson is killed by an arrow in the eye and William becomes the new King of England

Your task is to rearrange them into the correct order

Harold Godwinson was chosen by the English Parliament, the Witan to be the new English King. He was crowned as Harold I

King Edward has died. He was buried in the great new church at Westminster.

Harald Haradrada is angry that Harold has been crowned and plans an invasion. The winds are behind him and he sets sail for the North East coast of England